Haskett Transferred To Manassas

Superintendent Thomas F. Norris, Jr., of Appomattox Court House National Historical Park, today announced the transfer of Park Historian James N. Haskett to Manassas National Battlefield Park, effective May 13.
Haskett was born at Claremont, Virginia, and received his elementary and high school education at Waverly, Virginia. He attended the University of Richmond, graduating in 1957 with a Bachelor's degree in History. Previously he had served in the United States Army from 1951 to 1953 serving both in the United States and Germany.
Haskett entered the National Park Service in 1958 at Petersburg National Military Park. He was transferred to Appomattox in 1959. He is married to the former Miss Sherrie Anne Elliott, of Richmond, Virginia. The couple has one child.

Social Security Benefits Now Greater for Age 62 and Over

You do not have to retire completely to draw benefits. It is possible for some employees and some self-employed to work full time earn up to $4,400.00 a year and still draw some benefits.
Example:
John Doe, age 65, is earning $3,000.00 a year. He has earned $3,000.00 per year for several years. His social security benefit payment will be $95.00 a month. His wife and minor child will each receive $47.50 monthly. Total monthly benefits that they will be $190.00. John can continue working, earn $3,000.00 per year and the family can draw $750.00 social security benefits.
William J. Vinson, District Manager, Social Security Administration, Lynchburg, Virginia, pointed out that any individual wishing to file for social security benefits should contact the Social Security Administration and have the following proofs and forms:
If you work for WAGES you should have . . .
a. Your Social Security Card.
b. Social Security Card or Social Security number of any member of your family who is filing for benefits on your record.
c. Proof of your age. Suggest you try to obtain a certified court record of your age, or an old school record of your age, or U. S. Census Report of your age.
d. If your wife is 62 years of age or over, or if she has children under 18 years of age (or 18 years of age or older and severely disabled) in her care, she should contact the social security representative with you. She should also have proof of her age (certified court records if possible) and certified court record for proof of the children's ages.
e. Form W-2 (Withholding Tax Statement) showing your earnings for past year.
ALL SELF-EMPLOYED people should have all the proofs listed above and, in addition should do the following:
a. File an income tax return, Form 1040 and Schedule F or Schedule C (if required) and pay social security tax to Internal Revenue. Remember, the Social Security Administration must have a copy of your tax return. It is suggested that you have three (3) copies made — one for Internal Revenue, one for the Social Security Administration and one copy for your records.
b. It is suggested that you pay the tax by money order. The money order receipt can be used as proof your return is filed and will be readily accessible.
To receive your check without delay you must have the above proofs and forms with you when you contact the social security administration.
(Editors Note: We suggest our readers keep the above instructions for future reference.)

Appomattox Horse Show Schedule for May 26

The 1962 Appomattox Horse Show will get underway, May 26, according to plans announced today by the local Jaycee's and Lions Club, which sponsor this annual event.
Mail entries are now being received by the Show Secretary, Mrs. J. C. Arthur, of Timberlake Road in Lynchburg.
All events will be held at the Appomattox Ball Park. The program consists of an afternoon and evening show. Door prizes will include two $25 U. S. savings bonds and a fine young pony.
Proceeds from the past several years have been used to provide lights, seats and equipment for the new athletic field at the Appomattox High School. It is expected that a general public response to this year's event will enable the two clubs to pay off the final notes for this excellent community development.

STORM OVER STATE

A severe seasonal storm zig-zagged across Virginia late Tuesday afternoon, inflicting great damage in many localities. The brunt of the storm by-passed Appomattox. However a barn near Spout Spring was hit by lightning, and a roof was lifted from a dwelling.

Appomattox is the natural shopping center for a "heart of Virginia" trade area.

REV. LONG TO SPEAK AT CONCORD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Rev. Paul B. Long, of Charlotte Court House, will show films and speak on missions in the Congo, at Concord Presbyterian Church at Red House, May 13th at 8:00 P. M.
Mr. Long has served as a missionary in the Congo and at the present time is pastor of the Village and Drakes Branch Presbyterian Churches.
All members are encouraged to attend. Visitors are invited and welcome.

Elementary P.-T.A. To Meet, May 17th

The P.-T. A. of the Appomattox Elementary School will meet on Thursday, May 17, for its final meeting of the current school session. The meeting is scheduled for 7:45 P. M., in the school auditorium, to be preceded by a meeting of the executive committee called for 7:30 in the school library. Mrs. Alfred Harwood, Jr., is president of the organization.
New officers for the 1962-63 session will be installed at this time. The nominating committee is composed ob Mrs. Cecil Rowe, Mrs. J. M. McAlden, and Mrs. Harry B. Stanley, chairman.
The P.-T. A. is beginning this year to honor one teacher, annually, in the school with a life membership in the P.-T. A. The recipient of the award will not be announced until the time of presentation.
At 8:00 P. M., a magic show will be presented in the auditorium by Paul Young. Refreshments will be sold in the school cafeteria.
